ADDITIONAL IOWA STUDENT LOAN DISCLOSURES

A. Cosigner Requirements

A cosigner is required for this loan if the Borrower does not meet the Lender's eligibility criteria.

Cosigners may also affect the interest rate on Borrower's loan. If Borrower has a cosigner, Borrower may receive a better interest rate and improve Borrower's chances for loan approval. The effect a cosigner has upon the interest rate depends upon the cosigner's creditworthiness. The more creditworthy the cosigner, the greater potential there is for a lower interest rate.

B. Repayment of Loan Information

Repayment of your loan begins immediately.

The repayment period of the loan is 5, 7, 10, 15, or 20 years for fixed rate loans and 5, 7, 10, 15, 20, or 25 for variable rate loans. The Borrower must choose a plan in which they are eligible.

Additionally, you can prepay the loan in whole or part at any time without penalty.

C. Additional Terms and Conditions

Your loan is subject to all of the terms and conditions of the Credit Agreement/promissory note. Please read your Credit Agreement/promissory note carefully, it may include terms under which the interest rate on the loan may change.

To obtain a copy of your Credit Agreement/promissory note, please contact us at the address or phone number listed below.

D. Consequences of Loan Default

There are serious consequences if you default on this loan, including any limitations on discharging the loan in bankruptcy, contained in Section 523(a)(8) of the United States Bankruptcy Code. Under normal circumstances, student loans are not dischargeable in bankruptcy. In order to discharge a loan in bankruptcy, the borrower must prove undue hardship in an adversary proceeding before the bankruptcy court.

- Late payment history may be reported to the credit reporting agencies, which will adversely affect your credit rating and ability to get more credit
